

EU Special Representative

The EU Special Representative (EUSR) for Sudan, Rosalind Marsden, was appointed on 11 August 2010, with a mandate until 30 June 2012, to support EU policies in Sudan and South Sudan, including encouraging successful implementation of the CPA. In addition to North-South issues, where she provided support for the referendum on South Sudan and is mandated to support institution building in South Sudan, the EUSR also supports a political solution to Darfur, promotes justice, reconciliation and human rights throughout Sudan, including cooperation with the International Criminal Court and works to improve humanitarian access. While Marsden is based in Brussels, the EU delegation to Sudan maintains permanent offices in Khartoum and Juba.
